Docto

Docto is Australia's first online hospital; run by Doctors, for Patients.

Docto has a 24 hr emergency telehealth service providing on-demand secure chat, voice or video consults with a fully trained Australian Emergency Physician.

Docto also hosts a group of leading medical specialists and allied health practitioners providing video consultations by appointment. We have the complete range of medical specialties that you would expect to find in any major Australian tertiary teaching Hospital.

Our Specialists can provide diagnostic and treatment advice, medical reports, certificates, prescriptions and request investigations. If you would like to see one of our medical specialists we encourage you to involve your own GP wherever possible. Medicare rebates are available for eligible patients.

Anyone can see a Docto Specialist; no subscription is required and can book you in today.
