Arthritis Queensland

Arthritis Queensland is the peak body representing Queenslanders with arthritis and our objectives are:

- To advocate on behalf of Queenslanders with arthritis and osteoporosis for better services, programs and support.
- To advocate for better understanding of the impact of arthritis and osteoporosis in the wider community.
- To provide (or link) Queenslanders with arthritis and osteoporosis to the best possible information, services and support so that they can take charge of their condition.
- To encourage cooperation with government, fundraising bodies, project development, staff training, planning health economics, state based affiliates to ensure better outcomes for Queenslanders with arthritis and osteoporosis.
- To develop common systems to reduce costs, compare data and share resources with relevant affiliate organisations.
- To find a cure by funding research into the nature, causes, treatment, diagnosis and management of arthritis and osteoporosis.
