Abri Residential Aged Care – Gold Coast

Abri residential aged care village is conveniently located on the Gold Coast near the Southport Broadwater where community events and festivals are frequently held in the Parklands. Iconic Main Beach is a short drive away, the village is close to neighbourhood shops and on a public transport route.

One thing you should know about Anglicare's residential service is our respect for individuality. We want the people we are entrusted to care for – much loved family and community elders – to feel valued and respected. We encourage and enable independence in all our residents. And we provide a safe and professionally run environment that fosters a loving community with qualified and caring staff.
